Rewards

Lootup provides rewards to users in exchange for completing a variety of tasks online, whether it is completing surveys for market research partners, watching videos, completing various offers, or even shopping at your favorite retailers! Lootup also rewards users simply for coming back to the site every day, whether it's utilizing the daily spin the wheel feature, or promo codes that are sent out via push notifications.

There are thousands of companies out there who want more exposure to their brands, to hear your opinion through surveys, to gain more players for their games, want users to try their products, or even just sending email newsletters for you to read! These companies are willing to compensate and reward Lootup users for their time and efforts. Lootup facilitates the technology to make all of this happen, as well as doing daily outreach to gather more and more companies each day to be a part of our program.

What can you do with the rewards you earn? Lootup gives you the ability to redeem your points in lots of different ways.

YOU CAN REDEEM FOR:

- ✓ Gift Cards to your favorite retailers
- ✓ Cash via PayPal
- ✓ Bitcoin, Ethereum and other popular cryptocurrencies
