You deserve pHenomenal Skin

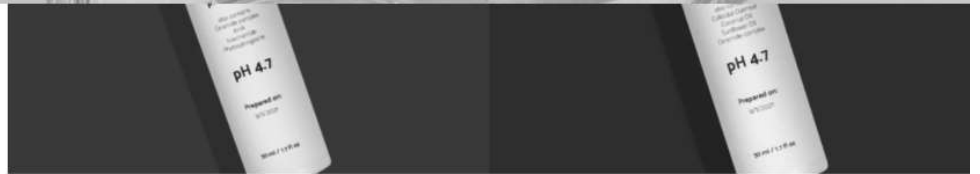

Skincare chemistry innovation by leading dermatologists and a Harvard Chemistry PhD. Formulated with love for eczema and the most sensitive of skin.

pH/LOCK™

Other products that claim to be pH-balanced provide only temporary pH correction. Soter's proprietary technology, pH/LOCK™, corrects and "locks in" the ideal therapeutic pH, so you can move on with your life.

Learn about our approach to healthy skin

Skin pH and skin health

Every time we hop in the shower, wash our hands, or even apply cosmetics, we challenge our skin and temporarily disrupt the pH balance.

Skin Barrier Function 101

Why it matters Skin is the largest organ in your body. Its main role is to provide a protective barrier between your internal and external environments - this is called...
