Nice product!!!

I purchased this crib for my son in grey. If I was listening to some of the reviews I was reading, I would've never purchased it. Everything was perfect about the product: came in before expected time, well packaged and very sturdy. Yes it took some time to put it together, but the family had fun doing it!!!! You can't go wrong with the step by step instructions. And don't get me started with storage spaces. They even added the extra bar to convert it from crib to toddler bed, when the time comes. Don't listen to the bad reviews, it is all worth it. Highly recommended.

Don't waste your money

This crib may look nice, but it is a piece of cheap crap. I bought this in January 2020 and my baby was born in June 2020 and it's falling apart and I haven't even put my baby in the crib yet, she is still in the bassinet. First the changing table drawer broke off and now the changing table shelf fell and I didn't put anything heavy on the shelf. The side rails on the crib come loose, I have to keep tightening the rails, but they still come loose. I don't trust this crib to put my baby in once she is out of a bassinet. The customer service is nice and replaced the parts, but this crib is defective altogether and I just want my money back, but the customer service will do anything to avoid that. Don't waste your money on this crib, it's not worth...

Looks so nice!

My boyfriend has had a pretty easy time putting this together I don't know what the other reviews are talking about it took him an hour tops. Helps having a power drill. Looks so nice love the grey color so much storage can't wait till our little one is here

Great Crib!!

Getting this crib was the best decision I made for my baby. I love all the storage space that it comes with, and love that it will grow with him throughout the years up until adulthood (maybe). I was able to put it together on my own at 7 months pregnant. Assembly took roughly 2 hours and instructions were very easy to follow. I don't recommend this crib if you have limited space, but if you have a whole room designated for a nursery go ahead and buy it.

Great Quality

Great quality crib! Easy to assemble. Very sturdy. Looks great. Nice color. Drawers are small to make room for shelves behind them but the pull out drawer underneath mattress made up for the small drawers.

Amazing price when on sale

Takes time for assembly which is to be expected. Instructions were easy. I set it up solo however I recommend having someone help you to speed it up significantly.
