Worth it!

Reviewed in the United States on January 16, 2022

Color: black Verified Purchase

When I bought this stroller, there were no Amazon reviews, so I was a bit hesitant. I'm so glad I got it! It's lightweight, easy to fold, and rolls well! I dislike how far the back of the stroller is reclined even when it's up as far as it can go & the canopy isn't very large. The feature where it can roll like a suitcase is super handy for going on/off the airplane, but the handle is a bit wonky to fold away or open when it's in the folded position (for example, after you've rolled onto the plane & are putting it in the overhead bin). However, it fit in the overhead bin like a charm & it was so nice to not carry my toddler through the airport!! Even with the parts I don't love, I'd still recommend this stroller. Hopefully they'll improve some of the items I mentioned above for future versions!

Wanted to love it but...

Reviewed in the United States on February 25, 2022

Color: black Verified Purchase

I wanted to love the stroller. It looks nice and it was easy to pull around. Assembly was a breeze. I bought this stroller for an upcoming airplane trip with my 1 year old. Unfortunately, the stroller arrived with a broken back wheel and I couldn't fix it on my own. A small plastic piece where the axel meets the inside of the wheel was rattling around inside the wheel. The wheel would slowly slide off after walking a few feet around my living room. So I had to return it. I guess I'm glad this happened at home a few weeks before my trip and not in the middle of the airport. If the wheel had been working, I would have kept the stroller. But given the price point, I think I'm going to look at purchasing another brand/model.

As a side note - I will say I was surprised at how hard the seat was. It didn't seem like there was much padding at all for my kiddo. Obviously, that's how they keep it so light and compact. I would think that after sitting in the stroller for a long period of time, it might become uncomfortable. Something to think about if you're planning on spending the entire day out with your little ones.

Took it on our plane trip and folds super small so it could fit in the car with the luggage. Easy to fill and unfold and put together. Ride super easy and can adjust the seat to lay back. Overall a wonderful inexpensive travel stroller!

This super adorable stroller is perfect for traveling! It offers me one-hand folding, and has a convenient canopy and adjustable backrest. It's ideal for my newborn and the t-shape bumper adds another level of protection, that I've come to depend on. This stroller is sturdy and comfortable and the wheels offer a relaxed ride. This is baby living!

This is amazing for travel!! It's so slim and folds up easily. I am 5'2 so it's at a perfect height for me to comfortably push and I think the same goes for my husband who's 5'8. There are functional features like the sun cover This is very adjustable so it can be comfortable for a newborn and work for older babies too! So excited to not have a bulky stroller anymore.
