Step 1. Fill In the Order Form

Meeting your professor's requirements is an essential part of working on the essay as it can make or break your final score.

Give as Much Information as You Can

The more information you provide, the better result you get when you order essay. Don't forget to include any relevant sources you want to be used. Simply share some examples of papers you have written, and your expert will mimic your writing style.

Set the Deadline

Remember, the further away the deadline, the lower the price to order essays. Use our double deadline feature: the first deadline is for the writer, and the second one is for the final date for your project. With this feature, you can be 100% sure that you'll get your work back on time.

Step 2. Choose Your Assistant and Make a Deposit

After you've filled out the order form, it's time to pick a writer.

Check Writers Profiles and Chat With Different Writers

Writers will make offers for your paper. Compare their profiles based on the number of completed orders, success rates, and reviews. You can communicate with them in chat to find out who suits your line of work best.

Make a Deposit

In order for the writer to start working on your paper, you'll need to make a deposit that is equal to the writer's price. Note that the funds remain frozen on your account and are unavailable to both parties while the paper is in progress.

Step 3. Revise Your Paper & Pay

Meeting your professor's requirements is an essential part of working on the essay as it can make or break your final score.

Ask for Free Revisions & Plagiarism Report

All editing is free, so take this opportunity to carefully read through your paper and request edits if necessary. You can request a plagiarism report for your paper if you want to make sure that it was written from scratch.

Make a Payment

Once your paper is flawless, release the deposited payment to the writer. All that's left is to say thank you and leave your writer a nice review so that other students can get help from them in the future!
