Product Description

Due to synthetic fibers, synthetic hair is more likely to be wound than your true hair, more likely to be affected by static, dust and moisture in the air. To remove the knotted hair, use the spray bottle to fill some conditioner, spray it in the hair, then use a wide toet to brush it from the root.

All our items are real shooting. For technology, display, light, environmental reasons, there may be slight chromatic aberration, I hope you can understand. As customers' satisfaction is Palaemon first goal, if you have any questions or suggestions, please feel free to contact the seller.
