★☆☆☆☆ NOT DRIPLESS & NOT 9 HOUR BURN!

Reviewed in the United States on December 8, 2019

Color: Black | Verified Purchase

Burned these candles for 3 hours and they dripped all over my candles holders and table. Candles are not dripless and will burn out in less than 3 hours. I've returned the rest since I don't need another 9 non-dripless candles to ruin my tables.

★★★★☆ Broken- shipped in a flexible envelope

These are good candles. Straight tapers and color all the way through. The box they come in is made of a mid-weight card stock, so not going to stand up to much. I wish they had been shipped in a sturdy shipping carton instead of the flat flexible plastic bubble package, because when I received them the cardboard candle box was dented and one of the candles broken in two places. These are Advent calendars, and I guess if our Lord was okay with being born in a stable I'm not going to complain about a cracked candle, but the seller should consider using a sturdier shipping method to protect their merchandise.

★★★★☆ Fragile

Reviewed in the United States on October 22, 2021

Color: Burgundy | Verified Purchase

I'm using these candles for decorating a huge hanging candelabra. I bought 2 boxes. Many of the candles came broken. I wanted to return them and immediately the next day, 2 more boxes arrived which was impressive. However, 6 were broken in one box and 2 more in the second. I was able to salvage and trade out the good for the bad. They just aren't packed well I guess, and though they look okay, I don't think the quality is great. Returning the broken ones is a bit of a problem as our local ups store closed due to the pandemic and I'll have to drive to another town.

★★★★☆ Stop scrolling and go buy a different brand

Reviewed in the United States on November 28, 2020

Color: Black | Verified Purchase

Literally the worst, I remember going to cracker country as a child and making a better quality candle. Target has better taper candles in the dollar section at a better price, the only reason I didn't get theirs is because they didn't have enough of the ones I wanted in stock. I would have returned them but they were only for Halloween so I really didn't care enough to bother returning them. If you plan on buying these for something where you want them to look even remotely decent just buy a different brand. Every single candle had air pockets all over the entire thing. I never even bothered to burn them no sense in being disappointed twice, I'm sure it would have dripped everywhere. Also the color isn't a true black think of it more like that old faded black t-shirt you can't seem to get rid of because you love it so much.

★★★★☆ Not so dripless.

Reviewed in the United States on January 15, 2020

Color: Ivory | Verified Purchase

Well, they looked beautiful in the candlesticks and burned well for the first couple of hours or so, appearing dripless. Once they reached about half the size they dripped all over the candlestick and the tablecloth.. Disappointing, bcs the whole point of the dripless candles is NOT having to deal with the mess/cleanup.

★★★★☆ Great product...slightly disappointed 😞

Reviewed in the United States on September 14, 2020

Color: Black | Verified Purchase

Some of the candles arrived broken so I could only use a few for my daughters surprise birthday party 🎉. Overall the candles were perfect for the occasion. (Excuse the after table mess) but you can see we didn't even light the candles 🕯 because we were nervous 😬 they would melt/fall over.

★★★★☆ They are not droplets.

Reviewed in the United States on January 30, 2022

The only reason I ordered these candles was because they claim they are dripless. That is false. I used the first 4 at a dinner party and the wax dropped all down the sides of each of the candles and even on the candlesticks I would give it a 0 star if I could.

★★★★★ Really Dripless!

Reviewed in the United States on November 12, 2020

Color: Black | Verified Purchase

Many candles claim to be dripless, but in fact tear up whatever surface you place them on... I was a little worried with black wax as well but these worked perfectly! I did heat the base of the candle to make sure they were standing up as opposed to just placing them in my candelabra, but again - super pleased. Will definitely purchase these again!
