- OZONE RESISTANT - Neoprene survives outdoor elements longer compared to natural rubber because of its resistance to both ozone and oxidation. Fit for a variety of uses, including gaskets, DIY material, supports, leveling, sealing, bumpers, protection, abrasion, and flooring.
- FLAME RESISTANT - The rubber gasket material is flame-resistant and maintains physical integrity in high temperatures. It also does not degrade in the presence of sunshine and features excellent adhesion to fabrics and metals.
