Most realistic flameless moving wick candles I've tried - and I've compared a bunch!!!

Reviewed in the United States on August 7, 2019

Color: Ivory-b Verified Purchase

These are seriously the best flamless I've seen. I bought about 10 different packs of candles from various manufacturers, I set them each up and turned them on and compared. Many were too fake yellow looking when they glowed. These were the most realistic looking - especially with the subtle nuance of the blue flame at the base. Love them! I returned the others and literally purchased 10 more packs of these. Yes - I now have about 30 of these in my house in every room all set on timer and every night They come on and create the most beautiful ambiance. Love these!

Don't put them in the sun, and don't let them get wet!

Reviewed in the United States on September 15, 2019

Color: Ivory-b Verified Purchase

The candles are made of real wax and the flame is very realistic. It even has the little bluish hue at the base of the flame...

I like the remote as well because I have one of them in a lantern. The timer is a nice feature also, 2,4,6 or 8 hours. When the time is up it turns off and automatically comes on again at the same time the next night.. these candles are definitely worth the $10. The only downside is each candle takes 3AA batteries but they seem to last quite a while... definitely going to purchase again....

Great flameless candles!

Reviewed in the United States on November 5, 2020

Color: Ivory-b Verified Purchase

I really love these flameless candles. The light isn't too warm, so they are more realistic. There is a slight clicking noise, but I think most of these type with the moving "flame" are the same. I ordered 2 sets and one remote works on all of them, which I absolutely love. I will definitely be ordering more for my Christmas decor.

Unrealistically bulky

Reviewed in the United States on January 25, 2021

Color: Ivory-b Verified Purchase

I was really excited to receive these candles after comparing reviews on similar products. Other customers raved about how realistic these were so I chose these. As soon as I opened the box, I was disappointed. They are so huge (thick and tall) that they are like a cartoon version of pillar candles. The very opposite of realistic in every way. I knew immediately how ridiculous they looked but put them on my wooden candle spindles anyway just to see and it was just horrible... they're way too big and bulky and take over the whole set up. I didn't even test them lit up since there was no point.

Real wax coating & flame looks real

Reviewed in the United States on June 29, 2020

Color: Ivory-b Verified Purchase

Unless the batteries are laid correctly...they won't work..then you think it's broke..since they go on top of each other..I wasn't sure which way it was suppose to go..I just kept trying until it lit up. On the advertisement the battery size is incorrect. Other than that they are real nice it really looks like a real flame. I like the real wax coating

Close but not close to enough to realistic

Reviewed in the United States on February 18, 2021

Color: Ivory-b Verified Purchase

As flameless candles go this is just ok. They make a big deal about the 3-D flame but that's just a play on words, as they take the flame and fold it at the middle, however the flame is hinged so that it only waves back and forth. Luminera candles by comparison mount the flame differently so that it has can rotate and sway smoothly making for a much more real-life candle.

I am keeping these as they are functional, but would recommend getting Luminera candles if you're looking for greater realism.
