

Heat without Fire
Use the blender's sheer power to heat food in minutes and even bring them to a near boil.

A Fine Process
Don't bring out another appliance. Grind and crush coffee, spices, nuts in this very blender.

Chop the Chilled
On the opposite end, feel free to throw in frozen ingredients and whip up a frozen treat.

Bring the batter
Relieve your hands of breadmaking duty. You can even prep dough and batter in your blender.

Party-Perfect
A dip for the big game. Rounds of smoothies after a day outdoors. A quick hearty soup for the in-laws.

Wholesome Little Blends
Blend the best for your young. Customize your own baby food by shopping for your own organic ingredients and mixing your most-needed nutrients. The silky smooth blend won't be hard to swallow.

Every Diet-Friendly
If you're curating the best foods for your body, you need a powerful tool that can keep up on the daily. Mix your protein blends, find new combinations of fruits and veggies, and refuel away.

Try This... and That!

Our included recipe book is sure to give you that creative spark when using your new blender. From frozen margaritas on warm summer days, to savory chimichurri paste for your steak, and even hot soups for the colder months, you'll find that this blender can help you do it all.
