Question: Can you fit standard size Manila folders inside be the pockets?
Answer: You can put your paperwork in the pockets, but a folder would be too large. Each pocket has a tab that can be labeled. So you don't need files. Very adequate size for a year worth of my records. I m using one for each year for 3 years now.

Question: Just got this file. Each of the pockets are sealed at the top to the one in front and the one in the back. Am i supposed to cut them to separate them?
Answer: You might just be holding it upside down, when I actually first got it I held it upside down and was like "what the..." and thought the same thing then realized I was just being silly. It's all open and has taps for you to write on to label.

★★★★★ Really Happy! DOESN'T BLOCK TABS!

Reviewed in the United States on May 4, 2021

Verified Purchase

Fits letter paper without obscuring the tab. See photo. Some ppl may think it doesn't fit because there's a part of the plastic lining on the inside that the paper can get caught on. Be sure to expand the slot and insert paper past the lining and it fits just fine.

Exactly what i expected, except a little thinner but the same capacity. Bright vibrant colors, little elastic draw string to keep closed. Im happy. Btw the tabs can have paper inserted between them. Worth the price

★★★★★ I like that it expands yet when it closes up it does not take up much room

Reviewed in the United States on February 20, 2019

i didn't like the tabs, i used regular bigger labels that stick on, much easier to read and access, the folder itself is really nice, i use one a year for all my transactions and bills, i will order this one again .

This has been a great folder! There are tons of folders and labels to go along with it. Also, I understand what people mean about having to push the papers all the way down so that the lid can close. Trust me, it will work!
