Revamped to go Buck Naked all winter

Trade in those cotton thermal longies that get all soggy and stinky when you work up a sweat. Buck Naked Base Layers are now a long stretch better at keeping you warm and comfortable. In diamond knit 4.4-oz. 93% nylon/7% spandex, they wick sweat, fight stink, won't pinch when you lunge or crouch. New low-profile seams won't chafe your cheeks, and improved rib trim stays snug and stretchy – even after a winter's worth of wear and washing. Pants have elastic waist, front fly and comfort-shaped seat panel so you won't sit on lumpy seams. Grab Buck Naked Base Layers and make winter bare-able!

FEATURES

- "Diamond knit" 4.4-oz. 93% nylon/7% spandex fabric wicks sweat, fights odor and prevents chills
- Bulk-free 1-1/2"-wide elastic waistband is brushed on the inside for comfort
- Improved rib trim cuffs won't get "wavy" after repeated washing
- Quick to dry: just rinse out and hang overnight - great for travel
- Slimline stitched seams feel smooth and comfortable
- Functional fly for when nature calls
- Imported

Excellent hunting baselayer

I use these for a wicking baselayer under my hunting clothes from early to late season.

Excellent Thermals

I love these thermals. Not bulky at all, but incredibly warm. They are so sleek, in fact, and I can wear them under my jogger sweatpants. I haven't found a better quality thermal.

Good, light base layer pants

I like the light aspect of these pants. No bulk but added warmth. Good durable product.
