Question: Can I use with boiling water?

Answer: No I would not use boiling water because the foot spa heats up quickly and you can control the temperature and it can heat up that way.

I personally use lukewarm water to fill the foot spa and then set the temperature that way.

★★★★★ A good Foot Spa large enough for my big feet!

Reviewed in the United States on May 12, 2021

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

I really like this foot spa. I have owned several over the years and this is the first one that fits my size 11.5 foot and allows the water to cover the foot to the ankle.

I have had this spa a few weeks, and used it several times. I have added a few tips I learned here.

The only add I really have, is they should have angled the back side (most are not) to accommodate the user's legs better.

Pros:

1. The controls are easy to use and understand.
2. The bubbles work well and feel wonderful on tired feet.
3. This spa is larger than most, and fits my big feet with enough depth to cover them well.
4. The handle is a great addition, since many are hard to carry when filled
5. The drain plug is very useful so I don't have to hold up the spa while tipping it to empty it.
6. Heater works well to keep the water hot. (You may need to adjust the heat as you use it)
7. The dust cover is really nice as well

★★★★★ Have a towel ready!

Reviewed in the United States on June 28, 2022

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

Having your massaged in (for me) in hot water with bubbles? Throw in some epsom salts, and you'll have a near - heaven experiance! Add too that softer feet due to a built in pumice stone and the fact that you can move your feet where you want them. A bit pricey, but I checked around and found that this was the only one that can completely submerge your feet. Best bang for your buck!

★★★★★ Best foot massage EVER!

Reviewed in the United States on February 15, 2022

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

I loved everything about this foot message and foot soak. After working long hours on my feet, it is a delight to come home and relax with the Foot Spa. My son loves it too! It is especially great to soften your skin, the Shiatsu Massage Rollers are wonderful - love that the water temp stays constant to the setting you choose. When you are finished with the relaxing foot massage, the Foot Spa machine is on rollers making it easy for clean up. to roll to your favorite spot for use. I would recommend it to anyone that wants to be pampered. Great product.

★★★★☆ It's heavy when filled with water and the sides are high.

Reviewed in the United States on May 6, 2022

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

I have a bad back so lifting this filled with water is a problem so I use it in my bathtub where I just have to open the drain. The sides are high so a fairly high stool is required to sit on and be able to get my feet in it. If the rollers are used, it's even higher.

★★★★☆ Nice for soaking feet but buy another model if you don't need the massager.

Reviewed in the United States on May 26, 2021

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

I bought this model primarily for the purpose of soaking my feet to eliminate calluses (I use either tea tree oil salts and/or vinegar and water for this purpose). I overall love the design - particularly the ability to easily haul from the sink and the spout to drain the water as I damaged another unit when pouring the water out. It heats fast and retains the heat for a long soak. Other reviews are correct about the comfort. Even when I sit straight up the massage rollers hurt my feet when not used, and I don't find them particularly helpful to us as I'm not on my feet much on most days. If you're like me and primarily want to soak your feet I recommend buying the unit without the massage rollers.

★★★★☆ Where's the bubbles?

Reviewed in the United States on May 5, 2022

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

I would've give this more stars except, the lack of bubbles. The pictures of bubbles was one of the reasons why I bought this one. I looked at quite a few before buying this one. Dang it! However I do like all the other features, it's deep, easy to fill, empty and clean.

★★★★☆ Time for my at-home pedicure!

Reviewed in the United States on May 16, 2021

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

I was looking for something convenient to soak my feet in that had motorized rollers and this fits the bill, especially for the price!
The spa heats the water decently quickly, but I'd suggest starting with at least like warm water to expedite the process. The motorized massaging rollers have three modes, which can feel a bit repetitive after a while, but they do the job. The rotating stone in the center is convenient to remove the dead skin from your heels. The bubbles are a bit weak, but I'm not expecting jets from this device. I appreciate that the basin is deep enough to cover my ankles when my feet are submerged. And once you're done, the plug at the base makes it very simple to empty the water. Overall, definitely recommend this product!
