About this app    →

The college admission process is stressful and with an overload of information coming in from colleges, guidance counselors, teachers, friends and family, important tasks that should be accomplished before you reach the first day of college can fall through the cracks.

Through the cloud, parent and student users can collaborate on tasks so all deadlines are meet. They can compare their suggested colleges within the College List function and classify them as Safety, Match, and Reach Schools. They can analyze their budgets with...
