Edit: Initially I quite enjoyed this game, but sadly I am on the point of deleting it. Despite not playing extended amounts of time I have nevertheless completed every available level. Two emails directly to the developers asking for a timeline as to new levels have gone unanswered, not even a boilerplate response. While I could continue racking up coins in hope of eventually having new territories to decorate and populate, the game has lost its appeal at this point.

This is cute, however, they have promo things that REQUIRE ads in order to earn the rewards you use to purchase animals, but the ads almost NEVER work! I've tried over & over for weeks to gain more money, etc but it just keeps loading! I'm very sick of it & I'm not going to bother with that anymore since it refuses to work, but I'll do the daily challenge until they fix this mess! Also, they charge WAY too much for wands & give none free, that's BAD! Get things working properly for more stars!

I love this game, I'm excited to buy the animal their a little expensive. You need to be able to feed the animals. There's a little more you could add to the game., but I love it.
