Vitamin cocktail, anyone? That Fiji glow really hits different. Rich, luscious and thick electric kaolin infused with vegan collagen, vitamin-C and lychee extract brightens, tones and lifts your skin while restoring its natural bounce. Injected with hyaluronic acid, Fijifuji is all about that youthful, radiant glow – it's a party in the tropics, and the vibe is Fiji-chic.

HOW TO USE INGREDIENTS ETHICS

With clean skin and a clear mind, generously spread onto your face and neck with your fingers or a dry mask brush. Wash off with warm water after 10-15 minutes.
