

our mission

Firelight is a social media platform where wellbeing is cultivated through human connection.

We chose the name Firelight because of the way that conversations around the fire have shaped and transformed humanity by connecting us in new ways.

By allowing us to gather and share stories – instead of just engaging about the mundane, transactional topics required by daily life – conversations in the firelight "put listeners on the same emotional wavelength" ... they expand our minds and perspectives, and cultivate understanding, empathy, and trust.

We are dedicated to carrying on that tradition by creating a virtual space that captures the essence of gathering around a fire — a space that allows us to skip the small talk, shed the many labels and stories we use to define ourselves, and connect in deep and authentic ways.

So, how do we do that?

We connect people through live virtual classes, discussion + accountability groups, online courses, and our private community platform. These virtual gatherings encompass a variety of approaches to spiritual, mental, and physical health, and are led by experienced and qualified professionals in an inclusive, encouraging environment.

We do this because we envision a world where every person – no matter who they are or where they are from – has access to what matters most in life: deep connection with others, opportunities for growth, and resources for healing.

At Firelight, we know that ordinary acts of kindness + connection change the world.

We believe that every person matters, and that a kinder, more beautiful and joyful world begins with each of us becoming more present, and more in tune with our own true essence.

How do I know if Firelight is right for me?

Other social platforms have left you feeling disconnected and yearning for a space where deeper, more authentic and meaningful connections can flourish.

You long for deep, juicy conversations about life, and what it is to be human.

You are on a healing journey in therapy, and want to support your growth by connecting with others who understand.

You want to learn from other perspectives as you chart your own unique course throughout life.

If any of those statements ring true — Firelight is for you.
