Solid

Ross W.

Good design in a lightweight bag. Material quality, stitching, etc. leaves a little to be desired. Like the magnet for the main compartment is tiny and loosely sewn in. We'll see if it stands the test of time. But overall I'm happy with the layout, the look, and functionality.

Stylish and functional

Tracy L.

I bought this bag for my husband. He loves it and so do all his friends. I chose this bag because it is very stylish and "modern" looking. A lot of golf bags I looked at have that pga look that you would usually associate with older men. I really love the splash of tie dye, which is just enough color against the grey with leather accents. The handle at the top is useful. He loves the insulated pocket for beverages, the magnetic top closure and he says the straps are comfortable. He says the one thing he would add would be more pockets.

Awesome Bag!

Westin G.

If you're reading the reviews, just buy the bag! I was a little worried this was going to be one of those things where the pictures were too good and it wasn't going to add up in person. I was wrong! This is a great bag! Light weight and sturdy, great and well thought out pocket space! One concern I had was the branding on the side, the "Palm" and "Swing and Smile." I thought they might have been cheaply applied and would break/peel off, I can say it doesn't look like they're going anywhere, which is great. Zippers are smooth and strong, magnetic pouch cover is just strong enough, stand legs are heavy duty. All in all, I would highly recommend this bag to anyone! Definitely not a paid or sponsored review here. I am way too normal and terrible at golf

Great Bag, Im in love

David A.

More people should know about you guys, its a shame. You should be in Dicks Sporting goods when I went there to look for bags. Im glad I found you, you are exactly what I wanted. Id recommend you to my friends, but ya need more colors than grey. We can't all have the same bag, that would not be cool. However, I will recommend to strangers (people I don't golf with)

First season and have not

Gray D.

First season and have not taken out. Very cool looking and light. Holds just enough.
