

EXHIBIT B

Home / Webster's New World / fiber optics

fiber optics ☆

1 a) the branch of optics dealing with the transmission of light and images, as around bends and curves, through transparent optical fibers b) the technology using this fiber as for the transmission of data at high speeds and in large amounts 2 such fibers bound together and used to send data, images, etc. —fi'ber-op'tic adj., fiber optic

Add a note or example to this Webster's entry

ADD NOTE

ASK THE EDITOR: FIBER OPTICS

Can you please me know if the correct spelling of fiber optic should include a hyphen. Therefore should it be fiber optic or fiber-optic?

Fiber to the Home Single-Family Unit OR Fiber-to-the-Home Single-Family Unit? Is it necessary to use the hyphens with Fiber to the Home...

BACK TO TOP

---

Fiber optics cable, fiber-optics cable, fiber-optical cable or other?

---

In fiber Optics terminology: "Fiber Scope" or "Fiberscope"?

---

The emerging technology of fiber optics is not listed in our most recent AP Stylebook, and I'm wondering if the term is singular or...

---

VIEW ALL

RELATED SEARCH TERMS

disposition

type

animal fiber

cirrus

astrophysics

BACK TO TOP