

Chances are there is information about you and your family on the Internet that you don't approve of. *It's time you do something about it.

myreputation<sup>sm</sup>

"I want to defend myself from inaccurate, unfair, revealing, and hurtful pictures, videos, stories, gossip, and rumors on the Internet."

GET STARTED!

"1/3 of employers screen job candidates using search engines like Google, Yahoo!, and MSN. 11.5 percent...look through social-networking sites like MySpace, Facebook, and Xanga for the profiles of job candidates."

- Study by counselors at Purdue University

What are they finding about you?

"Last year, as Margaret Sullivan was reviewing the websites her 13-year-old daughter had visited on the family computer, up popped something called Myspace.com. Curious, she clicked on it. "Oh, my God," she thought..."

- U.S. News & World Report, September 2006

Do you know what information YOUR CHILD has posted online?

myprivacy<sup>sm</sup>

I don't want my phone number, address, or other personal information about me all over the Web.

Hundreds of sites sell your personal contact, social security, and financial information. Well stop it for you.