Wholesome food isn't just for extreme eaters and environmentalists. Organic

Free of GMOs, synthetic herbicides, pesticides and fertilizers, La Tortilla Factory's organic tortillas are perfect for health- and environmentally-conscious consumers. Because they're made with pure, naturally flavorful ingredients they're also fantastic for the most discriminating food lovers. All that and they're 98% fat free too!

A simple combination of stone-ground corn, lime juice, water and our organic corn tortillas taste exactly as they should...like freshly harvested sweet corn. Full of fiber as well as flavor, La Tortilla Factory's organic carb-cutting wheat tortillas are made from a special recipe of whole wheat, oat fiber, soy flour and water, making them an obvious addition to any carb-cutting diet.

Creating two delectable flavors of organic tortillas, La Tortilla Factory realizes that wholesome food isn't just for extreme eaters and environmentalists. We're proud to say that anyone can appreciate our tasty tortillas.
