Rosewood Grill Meat Hook Details:

Tongs? We don't need no stinkin' tongs! Flip your steak the old fashioned way (and get the respect you deserve) with this handsome rosewood-handled meat hook. Used by professionals and amateurs alike, this multi-use, no-nonsense, genuine meat hook does twice the work of other bbq tools (tongs and fork) and leaves only one mark on your meat...keeping your steaks nice and juicy. To use: simply set the hook by twisting it into one end of any meat and then lift and flip in one fluid motion. Meat hook measures 18 3/4" long.
