About Us

The Verity Group is a hybrid consultancy that provides technology and support services to law firms and corporations. We specialize in blending Information Technology with best practices in e-Discovery, paper discovery, knowledge management and document review.

As a legal service provider we provide a seamless end-to-end solution to the discovery lifecycle. Our integrated technology services combined with our experienced industry professionals drive our passion and commitment to optimizing solutions and focusing on what our clients truly need.

Our consultative approach applies common sense solutions to technology and legal challenges. Our professionals utilize their real-world experience when collaborating with your team on the best strategy for a project or case. We work to ensure maximum efficiencies and successful outcomes are met while adhering to budgets, deadlines and client needs which strengthen the ability of law firms and corporations to succeed.

The Verity Group delivers the people, process and technology to make eDiscovery more efficient.
