

Uninterrupted Supply

With manufacturing facilities and distribution centers strategically located around the world, Tradex is prepared to respond to geopolitical change and global market volatility.

For customers in the United States, Tradex operates three distribution centers, including Tradex's 145,000 square foot world corporate headquarters located in Cleveland, Ohio. Combined, these distribution centers house more than 60 days of safety stock, protecting Tradex customers from fluctuations in supply.
