We will ship your order to the Century dealer of your choice within a 50 mile radius. They will receive your product, prepare it, and schedule the delivery with you. Delivery is included in the shipping price within 50 miles of your participating dealer. Additional charges may apply for deliveries greater than 50 miles. If there are no dealers near your location we will ship with one of our trusted white glove delivery services. Shipments are made within the continental United States. Additional charges may apply for unusual shipments or delivery requirements, such as the use of a ferry, or delivery up multiple flights of stairs. We will work with you. If you reside in another part of the world we would be happy to help you ship your Century Furniture to wherever you desire. Please click here to find a Century Furniture retailer near you or email us.
