

Verified Statement

I, Chun Yang, as applicant for trademark application no. 87406345, filed on April 11, 2017, I hereby submit the following verified statement to the USPTO.

I am the applicant for trademark application no. 87406345. My identification is attached for your records.

I believe that I am entitled to use the mark in commerce; I have a bona fide intention to use the mark in commerce on or in connection with the goods/services in the application as of the application filing date; and I swear under oath that facts set forth in the application are true.

To the best of my knowledge and belief, no other persons, except, if applicable, concurrent users, have the right to use the mark in commerce, either in the identical form or in such near resemblance as to be likely, when used on or in connection with the goods/services of such other persons, to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive.

To the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances, the allegations and other factual contentions made above have evidentiary support.

I, having been warned that willful false statements and the like are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. § 1001, and that such willful false statements and the like may jeopardize the validity of the application or submission or any registration resulting therefrom, declare that all statements made of his/her own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true

I understand that by filing under an intent to use filing basis an allegation of use or statement of use must be filed to verify use of the mark in commerce before the USPTO will register the mark.

This statement is sworn to and made under oath and the signatory is aware that there are legal consequences for making willful false statements in any document submitted to the United States Patent and Trademark Office.
