

Applicant respectfully argues that the term RAVE is not descriptive in relation to jewellery goods under International Class 14. The term RAVE is susceptible to different definitions. Applicant humbly argues that the term RAVE does not merely describe a characteristics or feature of Applicant's jewellery goods, as defined on the attachments below. Since the term has different meanings and does not immediately convey a type of jewellery to the mind of the consumers, Applicant humbly requests that the issue on Descriptiveness be withdrawn.
