How Verdane helps businesses grow

Verdane connects experience to innovation, providing the capital, network and expertise needed to unlock the growth potential of promising technology-enabled companies.

Following the investment in a company, or portfolio of companies, Verdane funds seek to be an active owner and innovation partner to management, jointly working to identify, research and evaluate growth opportunities.

The Verdane advisory team is the exclusive investment advisor to Verdane funds. The advisory team has provided advisory services to over 300 companies in Verdane funds, including access to extensive networks, insights in innovation, market intelligence and deep knowledge into our industries of focus, especially within e-commerce, software and high-technology industries.
