

“GAULT” Mark Explanation

“GAULT” is based on the surname of a European sculptor, whom in the 1980’s established an artistic style for sculpting miniature houses.

Since the mark indeed essentially represents a surname, and the fact that the mark will be used for a small yearly production of pieces, we have determined that the registering on the Supplemental Register provides sufficient benefits. We are therefore amending the application to seek registration on the Supplemental Register.