Our Story

Developed in 1999, Ram Board was originally designed to protect floors from the heavy demands of the movie industry. It was used on the sets of feature films such as Armageddon, The Hulk, Spider Man, and Pirates of the Caribbean. Word of Ram Board quickly spread to the construction industry where it was put to the test under the rigorous demands of contractors. Because of Ram Board's Flex-Fiber™ technology, it rapidly became contractor's #1 choice for floor protection. Ram Board is now sold through over 7,000 local lumber and supply stores worldwide. What began in the studios of Hollywood, now protects construction projects worldwide.

Interesting Facts

1. Ram Board has been used on "Extreme Makeover Home Edition" and thousands of Hollywood films.
2. The logo for Ram Board was created by Lloyd Vaughn, illustrator of Bugs Bunny.
3. Actor Paul Walker can be seen wearing a Ram Board shirt on the feature film "The Death and Life of Bobby Z".
4. Ram Board was featured as a Great Find in The Journal of Light Construction and Custom Home magazines.
5. Featured as a green-building product in ohgreen news.
