Hello. In a few months I will be moving out of Andersonville and back to New Jersey. This past five years in Andersonville (and Chicago) were an extremely important part of my life. To commemorate my time in this special neighborhood, I'm planning to get a tattoo of "you are beautiful" in the style of the signage on Clark St and Foster Ave.

Is there any way you could provide me with black-on-white artwork of a single-line "you are beautiful" in the exact font and spacing of the Andersonville signs? Just a file (EPS or some other graphics format), that I can play with the sizing and then give to a tattoo artist?

I'm a bit of a control freak and not comfortable letting a tattoo artist "wing it."

I printed some photos off the web but none of them are crisp black type on white.

I can make it work with the photos online, but if you could send a graphics file, that would be amazing!

Thanks,

Laurie Goodman

Hi Laurie!

Apologies! Unfortunately, I don't have access to that file, however that font is Helvetica. You should be able to get very a very close mock up with that! Please let me know if you have any questions-

Sincerely,
Shae
