REMARKS

Identification of Goods and Services

The Examining Attorney has refused registration of the application on the ground the identification is indefinite/overbroad. Applicant has amended the identification substantially as suggested by the Examining Attorney, thus obviating the refusal. The amended identification is within the scope of the application as filed.

Requirement for Additional Information – Cannabis-Related Services

Applicant’s services identified above in Classes 35 and 41 do not include the distribution, dissemination or physical possession/handling of marijuana, cannabis, marijuana-based, cannabis-based extracts, oils or derivatives or any other illegal controlled substances, nor do they include the distribution or dissemination or any products, devices or equipment designed for use or primarily intended for use in connection with smoking, vaping, ingesting, inhaling, producing, preparing, processing, manufacturing or concealing marijuana, cannabis, marijuana-based, cannabis-based extracts, oils or derivatives or any other illegal controlled substances.
