★★★★★ good until it started to leak

March 4, 2019

Size: Back Wrap

I only used it as a cold pack. The strap helped keep it in place and it usually stayed cold for an hour or so before I put it back in the freezer.

After a 3 or so months of use, the thermobeads started to leak. One of the seams started to leak and it left a sticky residue before and after every use.

I tried to get a replacement but the warranty is 3 months + receipt. Too late for a replacement for me. If the leak gets worse, I'll likely toss it and try another brand.
