VOICE
App. No. 88/478,699

I. Introduction

The Examining Attorney has refused registration of the trademark application for VOICE (the "Application" or the "Mark") filed by ModevNetwork, LLC (the "Applicant"). The Applicant addresses each issue below.

II. Prior-filed Applications

The Examining Attorney notes prior filed applications for VOICE, VOICE.COM and VOICE (Stylized) (Application Nos. 88461547, 88461546 and 88461543). Applicant reserves its right to make arguments in connection with these applications at a later time should it be necessary.

III. Descriptiveness Refusal

The Examining Attorney has refused registration of the Application, stating that the applied-for mark is merely descriptive of Applicant's services. Applicant respectfully maintains that the Mark is at least suggestive, and that it is certainly not merely descriptive. Therefore, Applicant's Mark is entitled to registration on the Principal Register.

A. The Mark At Issue Is Not Merely Descriptive But At Least Suggestive

The Examining Attorney may refuse registration of a mark, when used in connection with Applicant's services, that is merely descriptive of them. 15 U.S.C. § 1052(e)(1). A mark is merely descriptive only if it "immediately describes" the Applicant's goods or services. In re Econoheat Inc., 218 U.S.P.Q. 381, 383 (T.T.A.B. 1983)(emphasis in original). For a term to be considered "merely descriptive," the name must "immediately tell a potential customer what to expect in sum total of these concepts." Holiday Inns, Inc. v. Monolith Enter., 21 U.S.P.Q. 949, 952 (T.T.A.B. 1981).

However, if the term used as a mark provides vague or indirect information about the goods or services, then the term is used in a "suggestive" manner. 2 J. THOMAS MCCARTHY, MCCARTHY ON TRADEMARKS §11:19 (4th ed. 2002). See also Glamorene Products Corp. v. Boyle-Midway, Inc., 188 U.S.P.Q. 145 (S.D.N.Y. 1975) (finding that the mark SPRAY 'N VAC is not merely descriptive of a no scrub rug cleaner and stating "a mark is not merely descriptive unless descriptiveness is its principal significance. A mark is not descriptive if it merely suggests the nature or class of the product on which it is used"). Philip Morris Inc. v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 207 U.S.P.Q. 451, 455 (TTAB 1980). In concluding that the term "SOFT SMOKE" was suggestive, and not merely descriptive, the Board in Philip Morris noted that the term "SOFT SMOKE" suggests some characteristic of applicant's smoking tobacco, but it is a "suggestion that may not be clear or immediately perceptible or even be the same for each user of applicant's tobacco." Id. at 456.

The Philip Morris case is similar to the case at hand. While the term "voice" may provide some oblique suggestion about Applicant's business conferences, because the term does not immediately describe a particular characteristic of Applicant's services it is not merely descriptive. In fact, no consumers would readily understand the term "voice" as to refer to business conferences services. While Applicant's services relate to voice technologies, the primary services offered at Applicant's business conferences are networking, leadership, community building and business opportunities. See Applicant's website (last visited January 16, 2020) available at <https://www.voicesummit.ai/>. As such, the suggestion conveyed by the Mark is not clear, immediately perceptible or even the same for each potential consumer of Applicant's services. Thus, Applicant submits that its mark VOICE is at least suggestive and, therefore, is capable of registration on the Principal Register.

B. Descriptiveness Is Not The Principle Significance of VOICE Because the Mark Is Suggestive

A mark is not merely descriptive unless descriptiveness is its principal significance. See Glamorene Prods. Corp., 188 U.S.P.Q. at 164 (emphasis added). In the case of the VOICE mark, descriptiveness is not the principle significance of the mark. Rather, the mark evokes a different impression and is suggestive of a number of concepts and ideas. For instance, consumers could understand the Mark as referring to a particular opinion expressed or advocated by a community. Specifically, the VOICE mark could also be interpreted as a community, network or other group of people voicing and exchanging their opinions on different subject matters. In this respect, Applicant notes several VOICE-formative registrations on the Principal Register covering educational services relating to a wide range of subject matters such as newborn behavior, meditation, breast cancer and the food industry (See Section C below).

In addition, consumers could also understand the Mark as referring to phone services, a musical show, or the range of pitch or type of tone with which a person sings. Given the varied meanings of the term “voice” Applicant notes that consumers would have to inquire further to determine that the Mark alludes to a particular characteristic of the applied- services. This necessary step renders the mark VOICE at least suggestive.

It is well-settled that, “if one must exercise mature thought or follow a multi-stage reasoning process in order to determine what product or service characteristic the term indicates, the term is suggestive rather than merely descriptive.” In re Tennis in the Round, Inc., 199 U.S.P.Q. 496, 498 (TTAB 1978). “If the mental leap between the word and the product’s attributes is not almost instantaneous, this strongly indicates suggestiveness, not direct descriptiveness.” 2 McCarthy on Trademarks and Unfair Competition, § 11:67 at 129 (4th ed. 2003).

In the present case, as discussed herein and noted above, Applicant’s mark does not immediately convey the characteristics of Applicant’ services, but rather it evokes a unique commercial impression. Specifically, upon encountering the VOICE mark, consumers will be required to use some multi-stage reasoning to reach a full understanding of Applicant’s business conference services. That is to say, a mature thought process is required to reach a conclusion as to the nature of Applicant’s services.

As such, the VOICE mark does not merely describe Applicant’ services, but rather forces consumers to use imagination to determine the exact nature of the services being offered. Therefore, because descriptiveness is not the principle significance of “voice”, the Mark is not merely descriptive.

C. The Existence of Prior Registrations and Allowed/Published Applications Incorporating the term “Voice” alone or with Descriptive language on the Principal Register Demonstrate that the Mark is Not Inherently Descriptive

A review of the USPTO records identifies numerous VOICE-formative marks on the Principal Register for use in connection with educational and entertainment services in Class 41. The following is a representative sampling of such marks:

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*
What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*
What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or reminder of these filing requirements.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.
