The Shobizconnection

www.theshobizconnection.com

Yvette Rodriguez currently resides in Los Angeles, CA. Ms. Rodriguez is a producer, actress, public speaker and CEO of Silence the Tears and The Shobizconnection.

She is very passionate about reaching out to Youth-At-Risk and her non-profit organization is designed to assist young men who are incarcerated or currently in the legal system.

Silence the Tears teaches behavior modification and self-confidence through acting.

This program is designed to assist young men through behavior modification skills through acting, spoken word and toastmaster skills. This unique program is an indirect way of forming positive habits through characters and roles that the students act out. They don't become offended by the adjustments because it's the "character" that is getting the adjustments. SMILE. Fundraising website: www.SilenceTheTears.org

Yvette can be contacted through her website: www.theshobizconnection.com or 213-352-4057.
