RESPONSE

This submission is in response to the Office Action (No. 1) e-mailed on October 10, 2019.¹ The Examining Attorney has initially refused registration of the Applicant’s mark MASON REALTY INDUSTRY (Stylized), on the grounds that the Applicant’s proposed mark is likely to cause confusion as to the mark in Reg. No. 5159912 for MASON CAPITAL PARTNERS. In addition, the Examining Attorney also cited prior pending U.S. Application Serial No. 88257708 as a possible conflict – however, that application went abandoned on October 30, 2019.

For the reasons set forth below, Applicant respectfully contends that the Section 2(d) refusal regarding Reg. No. 5159912 should be withdrawn, and offers the following arguments in support thereof.

ARGUMENT

As per the amendment to the recitation of services submitted simultaneously herewith, Applicant is applying to register the following mark for use in connection with “Real estate brokerage services, Commercial real estate brokerage services, Real estate leasing services, Real estate management” in Class 036 (“Applicant’s Mark”):

The Trademark Examining Attorney has initially refused registration on the basis of an alleged likelihood of confusion with Registration 5159912 for the mark MASON CAPITAL PARTNERS for use in connection with “Investment management; Investment advisory services” (the “Cited Registration”):

No Likelihood of Confusion with the Cited Registration

For the reasons discussed below, Applicant respectfully submits that there is no likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and the registration cited by the Examining Attorney.

Applicant’s mark is different from the Cited Registration both as to “sound, sight and meaning,” see 3 J. Thomas McCarthy, McCarthy on Trademarks and Unfair Competition § 23:21 (2000) (citations omitted), and with respect to “appearance, sound, connotation, and commercial impression” as set forth in In re E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., 476 F.2d 1357, 1361, 177 USPQ 563, 567 (C.C.P.A. 1973).

As noted correctly by the Examining Attorney, this analysis must be done with respect to the marks “in their entirety.” (Office Action at 3.) “The similarity or dissimilarity of the marks in their entirety is to be considered with respect to appearance, sound, and connotation.” Recot, Inc. v. Becton, 214 F.3d 1322, 1329 (Fed. Cir. 2000) (citing DuPont, 476 F.2d at 1361, 177 USPQ at 567; Olde Tyme Foods, Inc. v. Roundy's, Inc., 961 F.2d 200, 202–03, 22 USPQ2d 1542, 1544–45 (Fed.Cir.1992)) (vacating order of TTAB for improperly dissecting conflicting marks to determine if the commercial impressions were confusing). This is known as the “anti-dissection” rule – whereby conflicting marks “are to be compared by looking at them as a whole, rather than breaking the marks up into their component parts for comparison.” 4 J. Thomas McCarthy, McCarthy on Trademarks and Unfair Competition § 23:41 (4th ed.) (2014) (citations omitted).

Here, however, Applicant respectfully contends that the Examining Attorney only compared the first word of each mark – i.e. “MASON”. This does not take into consideration the entirely different words in each of the marks following the word MASON – i.e. “CAPITAL PARTNERS” in the Cited Registration versus “REALTY INDUSTRY” in the Applicant’s Mark. These additional words in each mark are crucially important to the analysis – as they render the marks completely different as to appearance, sound and connotation.

For the Cited Registration, although the words CAPITAL PARTNERS are disclaimed and perhaps less significant – these words nonetheless cannot be ignored with respect to the analysis of whether there is a likelihood of confusion as to Applicant’s Mark. Particularly where these words completely change the connotation and meaning of the mark as compared to Applicant’s Mark. See e.g. Fruit of the Loom Inc. v. Fruit of the Earth, Inc., 3 U.S.P.Q.2d 1531 (Trademark Tr. & App. Bd. June 30, 1987) (finding no likelihood of confusion despite the identical initial word “Fruit” – where the additional words in the opposed mark gave it an entirely different meaning and connotation). Here, the additional words CAPITAL PARTNERS in the Cited Registration connotes “venture capital” or similar types of financial investing,² with no connotation that such investing is specific or even related to real estate. On the other hand, the additional words REALTY INDUSTRY in Applicant's Mark clearly connote "real estate industry" specific services – that in no way connote anything to do with "venture capital" or the like. Notwithstanding the fact that Applicant has amended the Application to disclaim these words, these words nonetheless must not be ignored when comparing these marks, because they render the connotation and meaning of each of the marks completely different, rendering confusion unlikely, which as discussed below, is reinforced by the Applicant's amended recitation of services.

Further, the Board has ruled that even as small a difference as a single letter can be sufficient to distinguish the marks, where that small difference completely changes the meaning and connotation of the mark at issue. See In re Reach Electronics, Inc., 175 U.S.P.Q. 734, 735 (TTAB 1972). The Board stated that "REAC" and "REACH" are literally words apart from each other. The one letter difference referred to by the examiner is quite significant herein because "REACH" is a commonly used dictionary word which possesses a meaning unlike "REAC" which is and would be recognized as a play on "react" or "reactor". And by reason thereof, "REACH" would be readily distinguishable from "REAC" in appearance, and it does not sound like "REAC" when spoken. Thus, the differences between the marks "REACH" and "REAC" are deemed sufficient to obviate any likelihood that purchasers would attribute the products sold thereunder to the same.

Id. Here, as in In re Reach Electronics, the additional words following the word MASON in each of the marks renders them completely different as to meaning, sound and appearance (when viewed in their entireties as discussed above), obviating any likelihood of confusion – even where there may be some overlap in the goods and services, as discussed below.

Applicant has amended its recitation of services to remove "Investment advisory services" and "Real estate financing services". (See amended identification of services supra.) Accordingly, there is no longer any direct overlap of services between the Cited Registration and Applicant’s Mark. Although the Examining Attorney provides evidence that consumers may encounter “investment management” services and “real estate management” services being offered from “a single source under a single mark” (Office Action at 4), as discussed above – the Cited Registration is not the same mark as the Applicant’s Mark – with each having entirely different words following the word MASON giving each mark an entirely different connotation and visual appearance and sound from the other. This – coupled with the fact discussed below that consumers are conditioned to seeing many different types of marks and businesses using the word MASON – renders any confusion unlikely.

Due to heavy usage of the word MASON in numerous other live federal registrations and applications, the Cited Registration should be afforded a narrower scope of protection. A search of the USPTO TESS database reveals 427 live federal trademark registrations and applications for MASON-based marks. (See screenshots of searches from the PTO TESS database attached hereto as Exhibit A.) Out of these, there are 21 live³ registrations and applications for MASON-based marks that include “investment” in the recitation of services (See TESS screenshot attached as Exhibit B). These include the following notable registrations related to investment and financial services, where one registration even includes both the words MASON and CAPITAL as in the Cited Registration (see highlighted entry in table below):

Mark:	Reg. No. / Ser. No.	Relevant Services:
MASON WELLS	2390220	Private equity investment services
MASON ROAD WEALTH ADVISORS	3158077	Financial portfolio management; Investment advisory services.

³ Not including Applicant’s application since the word “investment” has been removed pursuant to the amendment submitted simultaneously herewith.

Mark:	Reg. No. / Ser. No.	Relevant Services:
MASON SQUARE CAPITAL	4236582	Financial services, namely, investment advice, investment management, investment consultation and investment of funds for others ...
FINMASON	4951780	...Financial portfolio analysis services; Providing information and research in the field of finance and financial investments.

Such third party usage establishes that the purchasing public has become conditioned to recognize that many businesses in a particular field use a particular term, or something closely related to it, and that the “purchasing public is able to distinguish between these businesses based on small distinctions among the marks.” Steve’s Ice Cream v. Steve's Famous Hot Dogs, 3 U.S.P.Q.2d 1477 (T.T.A.B. 1987) (emphasis added). As acknowledged by the USPTO in connection with each of the subsisting third-party registrations and applications cited above (see Exs. A-B and above table), prospective consumers are accustomed to seeing numerous different financial-related services and other types of products and services offered under MASON-based marks, and have learned to distinguish each from the other based on small differences in the marks or services designated by them. See also Lloyd's Food Products, Inc. v. Eli's, Inc., 987 F.2d 766, 25 USPQ2d 2027 (Fed. Cir. 1993) (Board erred in failing to consider evidence of third party use of marks). As such, if consumers can discern the differences among the many MASON-based marks currently reflected on the USPTO TESS database, then they should easily discern the difference between the Applicant’s MASON REALTY INDUSTRY and the Cited Registration for MASON CAPITAL PARTNERS.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing arguments and evidence, Applicant respectfully contends that there is no likelihood of confusion between its mark and the mark in the Cited Registration, and requests that the Examining Attorney withdraw the Section 2(d) refusal. If a telephone call would further assist the Examining Attorney, please call the undersigned at the phone number listed below.
