

Additional information requested by the Examiner

1. Are applicant's in use in commerce that may lawfully be regulated by the U.S. Congress?

Answer: Yes, Applicant's in use in commerce is one that may lawfully be regulated by the U.S. Congress. Applicant's website: <https://envodrive.com/> clearly shows the goods on sale for purchases by US customers. The pricing is available in both Canadian and US dollars. One can make a choice while navigating through products for purchases.

2. Please provide additional information to explain that applicant's goods are in use in commerce that may lawfully be regulated by the U.S. Congress.

Answer: Applicant herewith attaches some of invoices and the shipping labels showing the product sales to the US customers.

3. Please provide evidence to demonstrate that applicant's goods are in use in commerce that may lawfully be regulated by the U.S. Congress.

Answer: Applicant herewith attaches some of invoices and the shipping labels showing the product sales to the US customers.

4. Please explain how applicant's goods are used in commerce that may lawfully be regulated by the U.S. Congress.

Answer: Applicant's website: <https://envodrive.com/> showing ENVO products on sale for purchases by US customers and additional shipping labels and invoices for the US customers clearly shows the applicant's goods are used in commerce that may be lawfully be regulated by the U.S. Congress.