Mentor products ready for purchase.

POSTED BY CHAD TAYLOR · APRIL 25, 2015

After 10 years of developing a brand with true meaning we are ready to sell.

Purchase the Mentor Empire collection for the people who made a difference in your life. Allow them to be recognized.

Another option is to submit a short story about the person who "changed your future" for the better, because they took a small amount of time to mentor you. We will prepare a gift and send out. Just send us an email to get started,

The Beginning

POSTED BY CHAD TAYLOR · APRIL 05, 2015

What if there was a message so powerful it changed the way you look at helping others. We created the Mentor Empire to educate, inform and promote projects dedicated to mentoring and inspiring others to do the same.

After developing and wearing mentor clothing for the last 10 years I cannot express the power one word holds. Only when you wear it, will you truly understand, the impact, the connection, and the satisfaction it brings to your heart. You will make different decisions, people react to you in different ways, and everyone wants to know how they can get involved. How can we mentor they say. The great news is its easier then you think. Wear a mentor shirt, put that into the world and what your looking for will find you.

No extra energies needed.

The Taylor Foundation - Chad Taylor Story from chad taylor on Vimeo.

What is the "Mentor Empire"?

It is the dedication of every individual living a life that others can respect and emulate.
It is giving knowledge and time and support to help others in need
It is striving everyday to be the very best version of yourself

Inspired by Experience

Mentor Empire is a message that uses it's profits to encourage mentoring.

When you wear and gift Mentor, you make better decisions.

When you receive mentor products you are recognized for your involvement in human kindness and the education of others.

We chose apparel and products after countless case studies proved, receiving, wearing or gifting mentor products help people connect and inspire others. Our Goal is to be the difference.

Join us!

- Promote the Mentor Empire with friends and families. Gift Mentor to the people who made a difference in your life. Share on social media or contact us too see what other programs we are supporting.
- Wear Mentor products. When you wear Mentor it sends positive affirmations to all around you. This changes not only the way you interact with others, but how others react to you.

Humbly,
Chad Taylor
