

RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

Applicant RH US, LLC hereby responds to the United States Patent and Trademark Office Action dated January 29, 2021 (the "Office Action"). In the Office Action, the examining attorney (the "Examiner") refuses registration of Applicant's mark, RH ("Applicant's Mark"), on the basis that the identification of services is indefinite. Applicant is willing to agree to the proposed amendment to the identification of services. As a result, Applicant respectfully requests that Applicant's Mark be approved for publication.

ARGUMENT

I. Applicant amends its application to include the requested modification to its identification of services

As requested by the Examiner, Applicant agrees to amend its identification of services to read as follows (changes in bold):

Class 44: Beauty spa services, namely, cosmetic body care ~~and~~; beauty salon services, health spa services for health and wellness of the body and spirit

II. Conclusion

For the reasons stated above, Applicant believes all outstanding issues with respect to the application for the subject mark have been resolved and respectfully requests approval of the same for publication.
