Re: Letter of Consent to Application Serial No. 87/116434 for the mark Discovery Plus Globe Design (B&W) owned by Discovery Communications, LLC.

Dear Sir or Madam:

We, Jaguar Land Rover Limited, are the owner of U.S. Application Serial No. 79/177962 for the mark DISCOVERY in connection with goods set forth below in International Classes 6, 9, 14, 16, 18, 20, 21, 25.

We understand that Discovery Communications, LLC has filed for registration of the mark under Application Serial No. 87/116434, in connection with "Backpacks," in Class 18.

The PTO has refused registration of the DISCOVERY Plus Globe Design (B&W) mark because of an alleged likelihood of confusion with DISCOVERY.

The parties entered into an agreement effective February 21, 2000, by which the parties agreed to cooperate with one another for the purpose of avoiding any instances of actual confusion between the marks that may arise in the future.

Jaguar Land Rover Limited and Applicant believe that the coexistence of these marks in the United States is not likely to create confusion in view of the following:

- the parties have peacefully coexisted with one another since the signing of the referenced agreement;
- neither party is aware of any instances of confusion between DISCOVERY Plus Globe Design (B&W) and DISCOVERY by our respective customers; and
- Jaguar Land Rover Limited and Discovery agreed to use their marks in the automobile field and entertainment/broadcasting fields, respectively.
