

ABOUT/SERVICES

CONSULTING

We're problem solvers, time savers, experts. We can manage your entire project, help you get started with a budget, or make your napkin sketch a reality. Backed by reputation, excellent software systems, and a dedicated staff, we'll deliver much more than

GENERAL CONTRACTING

We get it right, or make it right, every time. We'll handle every scope from turning dirt to keying your doors at completion. This process is often tedious, but working through it with Grit is not.

DESIGN BUILD

If we had a specialty other than solving problems, this would be it. We'll save time, frustration, and dollars by combining the entire design and construction process under one team, with Grit.

Tony Weigand, Chief of Operations

Mr. Weigand brings a wealth of experience, patience, and clarity to the often challenging construction process. From leading multi-project teams to overcoming construction challenges, Tony drives the success of every project and ensures our client's complete satisfaction.

Cassidy Shultz

Project Manager

Construction projects are busy places, whether that's onsite or in the back office. Cassidy handles day to day operations of projects, from subcontracting to billings, quality to safety, she supports our Superintendents in the field to make sure Grit provides the best projects, period.

Jeremy Arnold

Assistant Project Manager

When you assemble millions of moving parts, hundreds of thousands of dollars, and dozens of humans, organization and process are integral. Mr. Arnold keeps everything in order, solves problems, and facilitates the entire AEOC team to ensure a successful project every day.

Anna Clark

Office Manager

No firm can be successful without proper and thorough management of the back office. Anna brings dedication and organization to Grit's office and bookkeeping systems, meeting the financial needs of every stakeholder.

SUPERINTENDENTS

If you know construction, you know it takes talented leaders to balance quality, cost, and schedule with the shifting demands of the jobsite. That's our superintendents. Get to know them on your jobsite, and you'll understand why our clients ask for them by name.
