Few things are more essential to recording or live performance than dynamic microphones. Ask any sound engineer and they will tell you to keep as many as possible on hand. BEHRINGER has bundled three great-sounding dynamic microphones into one impact-resistant case, with stand adapters and mic clips so you'll be ready to capture your sound in brilliant resolution.

Three great-sounding dynamic microphones in an impact-resistant case, with stand adapters and mic clips. Click to enlarge.

What is a Dynamic Microphone?

Dynamic mics have several advantages that make them ideal for live applications or recording amplified instruments. They're robust, resistant to moisture and can achieve high gain before feeding back. These microphones' cardioid pickup pattern is designed to capture the source signal, such as a guitar amplifier or vocalist, while shunning off-axis sound.

Why the XM1800S?

If you take a look at the stage in any club, you'll probably see at least three dynamic mics for the vocalists, with even more for the drums and amplifiers. This convenient package puts three great-sounding mics at your immediate disposal. XM1800S mics provide super-clean sound with minimal distortion, a slight presence lift in the critical mid-range, and an on/off switch for breaks in the set.

Hard to beat January 17, 2010

By Jean-Francois Dubuc

Amazon Verified Purchase

I bought these microphones just before Christmas as a gift for my kids. We finished a portion of the basement as a musical scene with a stage and seating for the audience. They have different types of guitars, violins, flute, drum, keyboards etc. Since we have seven kids aging from 4 years old up to my oldest which is 15, we have 4 girls that really like to sing. Everything goes through a 12 inputs Behringer mixer and Mackie active speaker. Their voice are clear and without distortion. The frequency range is perfect and the feedbacks are minimal. One of the best feature for me is the fact that they are really sturdy. I saw one of the microphones falling to the ground and there was no dent or scratch on the head. I'm quite sure that it happened at other occasion and still no sign of it. In my younger days, I had numerous types of microphones and there is no way that a Shure SM-58 would do a better job than these. I can have 8 Behringer microphones for the price of a single Shure!!!

Excellent Value for Karaoke DJ September 9, 2011

By James Giblin

As a karaoke DJ who plays primarily in bars, my mics are often subject to abuse but people trying to be yesterdays rock star. A couple of weeks ago, I have a patron come in and throw one of these mics to the ground in celebration after completing his song and seriously dented the cap, but the mic worked perfectly.

So before my next gig, I replaced the cap with one from a burned out Shure mic that I had sitting around for parts. The following week, I had a friend who plays in a band come on stage and asked me to swap out my "cheap" Behringer mic with the quality Shure mic that was still in the case, and knowing that it was same make, I was happy to comply. After he got off stage, he was incredibly happy with the performance of the mic and thanked me for swapping it out. After the gig was done, I told him about the switch and he now also owns a set.

Bottom line - There is distinct a difference between these and quality studio mics, but unless you are recording in a studio and need a microphone for professional sound applications, these mics are perfect for 99% of most end users.

Worth TWICE the Price September 22, 2009

By David M. Gammon

Amazon Verified Purchase

The 3-pack is a FANTASTIC deal. I've been around mics under $100 for 30 years, and when compared to other mics in the $50-$100 range, they are as good or better! Good lows and clean highs without ANY hiss. Absolutely NO whine or hiss when used with a mic preamp. Don't miss out on this GREAT deal.
