On Campus Training

One of the unique features of the Children's Ministries Institute's residential program is the structure of its curriculum. CMI operates a 12 week modular program consisting of one and two week courses. Each module stands alone; however, some modules have prerequisites for entrance.

Among the benefits of this structure is that it enables many people to attend CMI for short term study and thereby complete their training in a convenient manner over a period of time. However, students are encouraged to enroll in the full 12 week diploma program, when possible.

Numerous accredited colleges offer credit for this training. As well, Children's Ministries Institute is a recognized provider of Continuing Education Units \(CEUs\) by the Association of Christian Schools International.
