This executive assessment platform will help your organization:

- Ensure you have the needed quantity and quality of data on your leadership candidates to make more confident, higher quality talent decisions.
- Examine leadership readiness—at the individual and group levels—to effectively execute business strategy.
- Identify critical leadership strengths and capability gaps to inventory talent against business priorities.
- Create more targeted and efficient development programs to accelerate leaders faster.

Assessing Talent helps you assess your mid-level and senior leaders with:

- Consistent quality of assessment delivery and leader measurement across the globe.
- Partial- and full-day simulations designed for operational or strategic leadership, plus interviews, personality inventories, and other measures of leadership effectiveness.
- Individual feedback via rich insights reports and a feedback dialogue with an experienced executive coach.
- Strategic talent review consultation with senior stakeholders, enabling rapid development and deployment.
