

Public Policy and Thought Leadership

About the Travelers Institute

Travelers established the Travelers Institute as a means of participating in the public policy dialogue on matters of interest to the property casualty insurance sector, as well as the financial services industry more broadly. The Travelers Institute draws upon the industry expertise of Travelers' senior management and the technical expertise of its risk professionals and other experts to provide information, analysis and recommendations to public policymakers and regulators.

Driving Collaboration

The Travelers Institute collaborates with leading public and private organizations to further the national dialogue on a variety of important public policy issues.

Cross-sector partnerships include:

- Government Agencies
- Universities
- Foundations
- Public Television
- Industry Associations
- Research Institutions
- Civic Organizations

The Travelers Institute rings in a decade of public policy.

“So many of today’s public policy debates could do with more light and less heat. We created the Travelers Institute to lead thoughtful and constructive conversations about today’s challenges and tomorrow’s needs. The Travelers Institute uses its convening power to bring together elected officials, policymakers and thought leaders to share insights, learn together and solve problems on behalf of our customers, our agents and brokers and the communities we serve.”

Alan Schnitzer, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Travelers

Public Policy Initiatives

Insuring Autonomy

Automated vehicle technology is a growing presence on American roadways. It will be important to address an ever-increasing autonomous world that spurs innovation, increases public safety, provides peace of mind and protects American drivers and consumers. Travelers believes that the auto insurance industry should – and will – play a critical role, as lawmakers, regulators and society understand the new autonomous world.

Every Second MattersSM

Distracted driving is a dangerous and common occurrence on today's roadways. With roadway fatalities at an unacceptably high levels, the Travelers Institute Every Second MattersSM initiative recognizes that every driver, passenger, cyclist and pedestrian has a role to play in changing social norms around distraction.
