DESCRIPTION

PMI Premium Paintballs. These are great paintballs that are tournament grade. These are a cheap alternative to Evil or Marballizer. All paintballs are fresh and arrive on a weekly basis. All cases of paint are opened before shipment to ensure that there are no broken paintballs. Once the package has been inspected then it will be re-taped and initialed to verify that it has been checked. All cases of paint are then wrapped in a bubble wrap and placed in a box surrounded by packing paper. Sorry but there are no returns on paintballs that are shipped out. We take every precaution to get you your paint in the best condition and in the shortest time.

Note: If the color selected is not available then we will substitute your order with a color that is available. If you need a specific color then please call us direct for availability.
