Thank you for submitting your form to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). Please read this filing receipt carefully and keep a copy for your records. If you find errors in your submission, the After You File page gives information about correcting errors.

Next steps

- 1. In four to five days, please confirm that we received the documents submitted with this form by checking Trademark Status and Document Retrieval (TSDR). If your documents do not appear in TSDR after four to five days, please email TrademarkAssistanceCenter@uspto.gov.
- 2. Within approximately one to two months, a trademark specialist in the Post-Registration Division will review your submission.

If your submission is accepted, you will receive a notice about your new registration (called the child registration) and whether you need to take further action. See the Trademark Manual of Examining Procedure (TMEP) §1615 for more information.

If your submission is not accepted, you will receive a letter (Office action) explaining why it is not acceptable and how to proceed. Visit our page on keeping your registration alive for a video and other information on the post-registration process.

- 3. Continue to check TSDR for any updates to your status until we send you a notice that your submission has been accepted or refused. If you do not hear from us within three or four months of submitting this form, call the Post-Registration Division at (571) 272-9500.
- 4. Keep your addresses, including email addresses, current in USPTO records so you receive email reminders about maintaining your registration. You must file required maintenance documents at regular intervals or your registration will be canceled. We will send these reminders to all email addresses of record listed in TSDR. Use the address forms on our website to update your email addresses.
- 5. Questions? Please visit our website, email us, or call us at 1-800-786-9199 and select option 1.
