Absolutely amazing!

Honestly I have been trying to lose weight and feel better about myself for a long time. I've tried everything I could think of, even googled things. I don't know how much I weighed when I started my skinny fit journey in March but I'm at 189 from what I know at least 220+. I feel better, I have more energy and I'm happier. I'm trying to lose more weight as I'm getting married next year and I didn't think it was possible. Oh, and it has really helped my hair and nails grow. Some might be skeptical but I can you promise you that it helps. I drink three scoops a day and do the detox tea in the morning every other day. I absolutely love the taste my only complaint is when I put my powder in cold water it likes to clump even with the mixer.
