

The twenty-first century modern designs of Turkel Design, produced by Lindal Cedar Homes, have been selected for the Dwell Home Collection.

The Lindal Experience 2009: Innovation and tradition. Inspiration and predictability. Well-planned architecture delivered through time-honored building systems, enduring enough to earn a lifetime structural warranty and sustainable enough to be the first to participate in the NAHB National Green Building Program in all 50 states. A refined, personalized planning process provided by independent Lindal dealers throughout North America and internationally.
