LASLO

Continued development

 Wednesday, 16 November 2011 04:45  administrator

We are still in the very early stages of developing this website and obtaining additional resources to meet our desired goal of having a pilot program to start by Spring 2012. We are always looking for folks who may be interested in supporting our non-profit (web developers, content writers, general support). If interested, please send an e-mail to join@sofi-laslo.org!

Thank you,

Colleen and Nick

Listening and Spoken Language Organization (LASLO):

This site's intention is to create a database of ASHA accredited graduate programs to connect graduate students with field placements across the country (utilizing listening and spoken language methodologies for children with hearing loss).
